

FMI Ethics Committee Fact Sheet

Mission: The FMI Ethics Committee offers a safe place for our members, and their students, to speak freely, voicing concerns and receiving support for any perceived ethical infractions that may arise in the course of participation in FMI-related Movement Intelligence™ workshops, classes, and trainings led by our certified instructors.

Purpose: Listening and communicating, when the need arises

Committee Guidelines, Protocols, and Standards:

- Listening Actively
- Honoring Confidentiality
- Practicing Kindness
- Showing Understanding and Empathy
- Being Respectful in All Communication
- Helping to Clarify Positive Intent
- Being Accountable to All Involved Parties

Our objective is to arrive at mutual understanding and resolution among affected parties, in an expedient manner, by listening; mediating as necessary; and advising on action when appropriate.

If you need support with an ethics-related concern, please reach out to FMI's Ethics Committee representative via text, phone, or email:

Viana Fox (206) 799-1052 vianabfl72@gmail.com